SECTION 1557: NON-DISCRIMINATION

Lakeland Health is committed to treating all patients and visitors equally. Lakeland complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate, exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.

Lakeland Health provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us including qualified sign language interpreters and written information such as large print, audio, accessible electronic and other formats.

We provide free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

If you need assistance, please contact Vicki Buck, Patient Education Coordinator at (269) 983-8869 or vbuck@lakelandhealth.org

If you believe that Lakeland Health has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex, you can file a grievance with:
